

Aviva Tugendhaft

Deputy Director

PRICELESS SA

Education:

BA Law

Honours Political Science

Masters Health Sociology (cum laude)

Bachelor of Arts (Law)- University of the Witwatersrand (Wits), 2006

Honours Political Science - Wits, 2007

Honours dissertation: HIV/AIDS and Local Government: The need for a decentralized response

Masters Health Sociology - Wits, 2010

Research Report: Medical Pluralism and HIV/AIDS in South Africa: What are the barriers to collaboration between Traditional Healers and Medical Doctors?

Previous Posts:

Various NGOs and Public sector. Involved in research as well as policy and programme analysis and development, specifically with regard to HIV/AIDS. Private sector consultant for development of workplace wellness programmes.

Research Interests:

Engaging the public in priority setting for health

Priority setting for non-communicable diseases

Priority setting for maternal and child health